

Occupational Safety and Health Professional

Course Description

Students will be introduced to OSHA policies, procedures and standards as well as general industry safety and health principles covered in OSHA Act Part. Special emphasis will be placed on areas most hazardous using OSHA standards as a guide. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an OSHA general industry safety and health 30-hour course completion card from Department of Labor - USA.

Course Objectives:

- State the purpose of the OSH Act and list the functions of OSHA.
- List the OSHA inspection priorities and describe the inspection process.
- Describe the rights and responsibilities of employers and employees under the OSH Act.
- The basic requirements for proper aisle and passageway maintenance.
- Guidelines for identification and protection of floor openings.
- To understand the importance of effective Egress fire protection program.
- To know the safe means of Egress to provide fire protection in emergencies from new or old buildings or structures.
- Outline the machine safeguarding methods.
- Occupational Health and Industrial Hygiene.

OUTLINE

- Outline the general requirements for general safety standards, establish the guidelines and requirements for special purpose equipment.

Who Should Attend

- Supervisors with safety and health responsibilities.
- Safety Directors, managers, engineers, supervisors.
- Safety Inspectors and Safety Officers
- Engineers (All Disciplines).
- Operations and Maintenance supervisors and foremen.